

3D PRINTING SAFETY

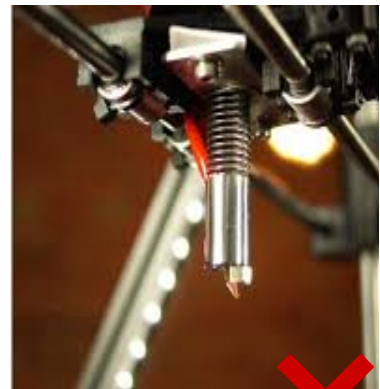

Do not print with the lid open. Fumes from melting plastic may harm your skin, lungs, nerves, and brain.

Once a printing job has been started, do not open the cover.

Do not touch extruder. Temperature exceeds 250°F and will burn your skin.

Use cut resistant gloves while cleaning your 3D printed model with a metal spatula.

